Shri Y.Chaturvedi, counsel for the appellant.

Ms. R.Vidya Praveena, counsel for resp. No.3.

Heard.

The applicant has preferred this revision petition against the impugned order dated 22/10/2002, passed by the learned Claims Tribunal by which the application for withdrawal of the compensation award in the name of the applicant has been rejected on the ground that the applicant has not deposed as to when he is going to be married and for what business the said money is required.

In the above circumstances, I do not find any infirmity in the order and accordingly the revision petition is dismissed.

However, the applicant is at liberty to make suitable application before the Claims Tribunal along with the particulars desired by the Presiding Officer which shall be decided by the Tribunal on its own merits.

Accordingly, the revision petition is dismissed.
